Table Talk

- 1) In what ways might we not include other believers in our lives based on socioeconomic lines or demographics such as age, sex, education, nationality, or ethnicity?
- 2) What are some modern-day examples of divisions among believers, and how does this despise the church of God and humiliate others?
- 3) What are the consequences of breaking fellowship with believers over non-essential reasons?
- 4) How does the Lord's Supper bind us together as a Christian community gathered together under God's Word?
- 5) What are three ways you can prepare ahead of time before communion?
- 6) What Scriptures can we look to in helping us discern our readiness for the Lord's Supper?
