

3. Truth and restoration are hallmarks of healthy church relationships.
(2 Corinthians 13:7-14)

Table Talk

- 1) How might people confuse meekness with weakness? In what ways does Paul show both meekness and strength in writing this letter? (vv. 1-4)
- 2) Why should we examine ourselves to see whether we are in the faith? What does it mean to be "in the faith"? Does such self-examination mean that we are doubting our salvation? (vv. 5-6)
- 3) How does Paul describe his passion for the truth? Why must churches have that same passion? How does Paul describe his passion for restoration of relationships at Corinth? Why must believers have that same passion today? (vv. 7-14)